

Wolf and bear photos © Leo Keeler

FIRST THEY SAY WE NEED TO KILL
WOLVES AND BEARS BECAUSE THERE AREN'T ENOUGH MOOSE...

NOW THEY SAY THERE ARE TOO MANY MOOSE AND WE NEED TO KILL MOOSE CALVES...

WHAT'S THE REAL STORY?

The Alaska Board of Game has expanded the aerial wolf killing zone to encompass more than 30,000 square miles, approved killing bear sows and their one-year old cubs, and lifted the statewide prohibition on moose calf hunting.

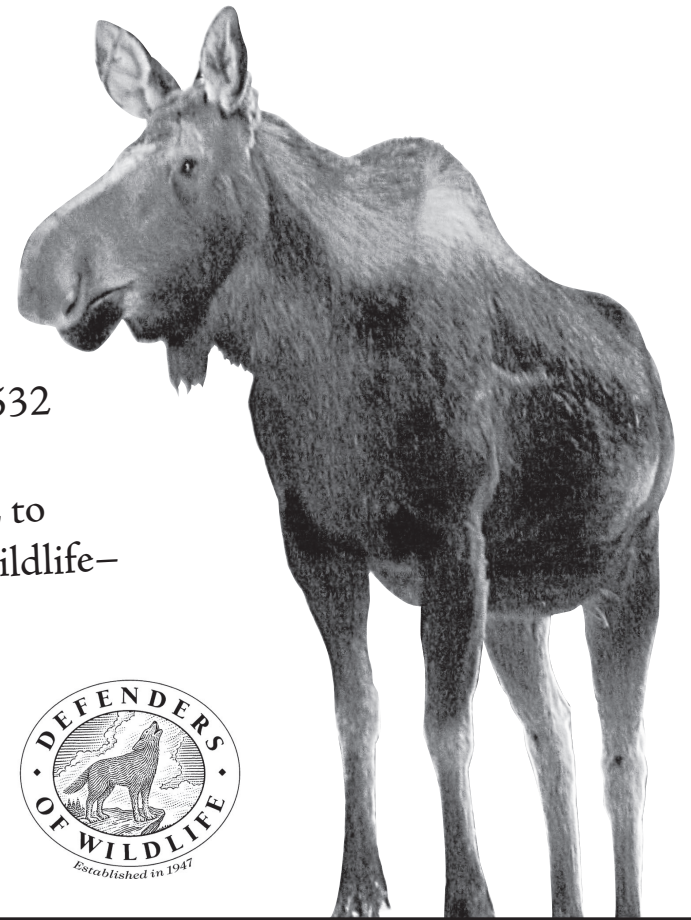

Help put an end to this sham. Visit savealaskawolves.org and sign an online petition to Governor Murkowski.

Also contact Governor Murkowski directly. Tell him to stop such short-sighted, scientifically unsound wildlife management programs.

Governor Frank Murkowski
P.O. Box 110001
Juneau, AK 99811-0001
Email: Governor@gov.state.ak.us
Phone: 907-465-3500 Fax: 907-465-3532

Alaskans have already said no TWICE to using aircraft to kill wolves and other wildlife—we meant it then and we still do!

Paid For By Defenders of Wildlife
308 G Street, #310, Anchorage, Alaska 99501

